Re: Discount levied at four annas per Hundred Rupees on all currency notes encashed at Treasuries.

No. 1152—B2. With reference to instructions contained in Note 1 to Article 559 of M. C. A. C., Volume II on the above, Treasury Officers are informed that since the currency notes of the value of Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000 have been demonetised and withdrawn from circulation, all notes now current of the value of Rs. 100 and below of the Government of India and the Reserve Bank of India have to be regarded as Universal notes. No discount should, therefore, be levied for encashing currency notes of hundred rupees at Treasuries and this will come into force immediately. Action is being taken separately for deleting the detailed head "Premium on currency Notes" under the Minor Head "XIII Miscellaneous—4 Miscellaneous" in the new cash account that is being printed.
